NEWS RELEASE

PRIVATAIR ASSOCIATES ITSELF WITH INDIAN NGO

As part of a luxury world tour organized by Swiss elite travel specialist Exklusiv Reisen, PrivatAir yesterday embarked on a 17-day tour to destinations in China and India. Passengers aboard PrivatAir's Boeing 757 will visit various locations, taking in local sights and sounds. Furthermore, the tour will be accompanied by expert guides, enabling participants of the tour to learn as much as possible about their destination. However, while the passengers will be enjoying their holidays, there are many who are less fortunate.

One organization which aims to improve the health and quality of life of socially disadvantaged populations is "Calcutta Rescue". Since its inception in 1979, Calcutta Rescue has offered free medical services to the poor, and has now expanded to offer free schooling to children otherwise unable to afford it. As the school is expecting an additional 250 children this summer, there is a need for certain, basic goods. PrivatAir, in cooperation with Exklusiv Reisen, will transport a shipment of supplies including toothbrushes, pens, and children's toys from Switzerland, where they organized a collection, to Kolkata in India.

PrivatAir and Exklusiv Reisen are proud to be associated with Rescue Calcutta and pleased to be able to use its spare cargo capacity to make a small difference together, to help those less fortunate.
